

Criteria	Weak (0-13)	Average (14-17)	Strong (18-20)
Board game is created using appropriate materials; it is creative, neat, colorful, and is labeled with the name of your game.
Create at least 25 questions and answers that relate to the Civil War. The questions must be incorporated into playing the game. Questions should reflect an appropriate level of difficult--Challenging but not too difficult.
The rules of play are clear and logical. Players should be able to easily understand the game's objective. They should be able to refer to the rules to settle any conflicts that may arise.
Write detailed directions that make it very clear how to play. The rules contain a clear purpose and objective of how to win. The rules of the game must relate to the Civil War content area selected.
Did this group work well together as a team, and did each member take responsibility for their role?

